A I B Y

With Aiby, your entire sofa is comfort. The backrest cushions are loose and filled with polyester fiber, while the arms are made of solid wood and natural straw, with a modern and bold design. And the structure, in turn, is made of solid wood covered with medium and high density foam wrapped in an Ecosoft foam blanket. What does that mean? Coziness for you and whoever else fits.

STRUCTURE

A sofa with a solid wood structure covered with medium and high density foam surrounded by a blanket of Ecosoft foam. The model has solid wood arms with natural straw, which gives a bold and modern design to the upholstery. The backrest cushions are loose and filled with polyester fiber.
